Top Man

One of the Radio City's Top DJ's & zaniest of the boys returns to the Forts 7 nautical miles from Whitstable

Ian MacRae famous for his sketches as alter ego Auntie Mable will present programmes on the new Fort based station Red Sands Radio

Ian who returned to his native Australia when the Pop Pirates had been outlaw carved a highly successful media career down under & is still in radio today

Said Ian "Auntie Mable would be tickled pink to know I'm back, not sure the gin swigging old girl though is up to climbing those rusty ladders anymore"

"It'll be great to be on a station that comes from the Forts again, I've some amazing memories of my time there which I'll be sharing, in my wildest dreams I'd never have thought I'd broadcast from them again"

Radio Red Sands launches on 14th July 2007 on 1278kHz
